

Transportation Research Board (TRB) Annual Meeting

Student Travel Awards

Graduate-level students involved in transportation research are invited to apply for a travel award to be used for the purpose of attending the Transportation Research Board (TRB) Annual Meeting in Washington, DC, January 12–16, 2020. Travel awards are sponsored by the Center for Transportation Studies (CTS) at the University of Minnesota.

Selected students will:

1. Be reimbursed (up to $1,000) for travel to the TRB Annual Meeting, including conference expenses.
2. Be recognized on the CTS website.

Application and Eligibility Requirements

1. Applicants must be graduate students enrolled at the University of Minnesota.
2. Students wishing to be considered must apply online at <https://z.umn.edu/TRBTravel> by Friday, November 1, 2019.

Award Considerations

1. Student applications will be evaluated based on the following criteria:
 - Transportation-related degrees and coursework
 - Transportation research and/or thesis work conducted
 - Transportation-related papers presented and/or publications submitted or published
2. Consideration will also be given to the following:
 - Students who have presentations or posters at the 2020 TRB Annual Meeting
 - Students involved in transportation-related student organizations
 - A well-written and thoughtful summary
 - Diversity of the disciplines received

Notification

Candidates will be notified via email if they have been selected to receive a travel award by Friday, November 15, 2019. If selected, students will be required to submit a summary describing their conference activities and how the conference impacted their interest in transportation upon completion of the conference.
